What is UGC (University Grants Commission)?

The Full form of UGC is University Grants Commission of India (UGC India).

The University Grants Commission of India (UGC India) is the primary regulatory body created by the Indian Government in accordance with the UGC Act of 1956 under the Ministry of Human Resource Development. It has been made responsible for the coordination of Indian Universities, determination of the standards for Indian universities and maintenance of standards of higher education in India.

It acknowledges universities in India. It also spends and grants funds to universities and colleges that it has approved or recognized.

The main function of the UGC is to allocate funds to it's in need institutions and to offer its impartial and respected expert advice to the Government on the strategic development and requirements for resources for higher education in India. Today, UGC manages one of the largest higher education systems in the world.

What is UGC approved Journals list / UGC CARE List?

Journals are the medium through which budding candidates publish their articles about their research. These sources are made available because of the UGC.

If the aspirants choose any private journal except for UGC approved journals for their research other than that, it is not considered as valid. As of now, the UGC Approved Journals list has now been replaced by UGC – CARE.

UGC aims to stimulate, empower and help grow the Indian academia through its “Quality Mandate”. UGC aims to eradicate any plagiarized and sub-par material that might damage the reputation and standards of international research.

The UGC-CARE List is dynamic. If any good quality journal is missing, it may be submitted by following the prescribed process. If any undeserved journal is found anywhere in the List.

The UGC-CARE List is classified into

- i) Sciences
- ii) Social Sciences
- iii) Arts and Humanities and
- iv) Multidisciplinary based on All Science Journal Classification (ASJC) codes, which are created and maintained by Scopus (Elsevier Science). Journals indexed in Web of Science as well as Scopus or discontinued are not included in the count.
